DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 5-46 are pending in the application.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I (claims 5-12) in the reply filed on 12/13/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the fuel additive of Groups I and III are prepared by the process of Group II and are, thus, inseparably connected. This is not found persuasive because prior art anticipating or rendering obvious the invention of either Groups I or III (the fuel additives) would not necessarily anticipate or render obvious the invention of Group II (process for producing the fuel additives).

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 5-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In the instant case, applicants have claimed a fuel additive, which comprises from about 94.5 to about 99.9% by mass of oxyalkylenated monoalky phenol...and not more than 5.05 by mass of oxyalkylenated monoalkylenated monohydroxyl alcohol. However, such a fuel additive is not supported by the present specification. The Examiner does not see anywhere in the present specification or original claim language where applicants possessed the presently claimed subject matter. Hence, the presently claimed subject matter is considered to be new matter.

Art Unit: 1621
